

New Rules Proposed for Affordable Housing

- Do you understand the impact to your municipality?
- Is your municipality prepared to meet its obligation?

Downtown NJ will hold an open forum to explain the new rules and answer your questions. Commissioner Joseph Doria of the NJ Dept. of Community Affairs will present the state's position and what the proposed rules mean.

Please join Downtown NJ members for this important information forum.

Friday, March 14
9:30 am – 10:30 am
Cranford Town Hall
8 Springfield Avenue

The session is free and open to elected officials, municipal administrators, SID managers and board members, land use attorneys, planners, developers

RSVP: info@downtownnj.com or 973-992-8800

Hold the Date for Future Open Forums

- May 9 at Vail Mansion, Morristown: Historical Preservation
- July 11 – topic & location to be decided
- September 12 – topic & location to be decided

Downtown NJ is a non-profit organization with over 150 members statewide whose common goal is improving the economic and cultural viability of New Jersey's commercial business districts, traditional downtowns and neighborhood shopping areas. The organization's membership includes commercial district professionals, elected officials, real estate, planning, legal and architectural professionals, business owners. For more information please contact us at 973-992-8800 or email info@downtownnj.com.

We hope that you can join us for this important discussion.

Kathleen Miller Prunty
President, Downtown NJ