

The end of the property tax insanity is in sight. Let's finish the job!

On Monday, May 16, the State Assembly passed A-5269, a bill that can lead to historic changes to the property tax system in New Jersey.

It is time to complete what we started by pushing this bill through the State Senate. Don't let this opportunity for change pass us by. Your Senators need to hear from you!

What: A citizen's rally in support of A-5269, a historic bill that sets the rules for a constitutional convention on property taxes.

When: Thursday, June 16 at 2:00 PM

Where: The front steps of the Statehouse*

Who: AARP New Jersey, Citizens for Property Tax Reform, NJ League of Municipalities, NJ League of Women Voters, and more

We need a constitutional convention for property tax reform NOW!
