New Jersey State League of Municipalities

is a voluntary nonpartisan statewide association created to help communities do a better job of self-government through pooling information resources and brainpower. Authorized by state statute since 1915, it has been serving local officials throughout the Garden State. All 564 mayors and 13,000 elected and appointed officials of member municipalities are entitled to all of the services and privileges of the League.

This orientation for municipal officials who are newly elected, reelected, or experienced is fast paced and designed to quickly bring officials up-to-date on important municipal issues. The newly elected officials will get a thorough overview of their major areas of responsibility, key contact at the State level, and important sources of information and assistance.

Reelected and experienced officials will receive valuable up-to-date reference materials that will guide them to the answers they seek. They will also get the latest information on the most important municipal issues—all while meeting their newly elected peers and the League Staff.

The Luncheon is an integral part of the orientation and designed as an opportunity to informally discuss experiences and share ideas with experienced Local Officials.
